DEPARTMENT.

Our Stock in this Department far excels any previous season in the thirty-two years of our business. It is the opinion of all merchants that this will be a large white goods season, and therefore we have bought largely in Laces and Embroideries in anticipation. Nothing adds so much to ithe beauty and eleasure of a summer costume as a profusion of Embroidery or Laces.

Embroideries. We have White and Colored Embroideries in Ewiss. Jaconet and Nainsook, in various widths and All Over to match. Laces.

Spanish Escurial and Egyptian Flouncings, with Nets to match. Oriental Laces in White, Cream and Beige: Linen Laces, Medicis and Torchon Laces, machine and hand made. Veilings.

In this Department will be found all the new colors in Sewing Stik Vellings, Parisina, Malines and Munich Nets.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Carver & Co.'s loss on ice has been adjusted at $3,300.

The Board of Directors are requested to meet at the Art Exhibit rooms at 4:30 this siternoon.

Three small boys were arrested yesterday afternoon for the alleged theft of a quantity of copper.

At 9:30 yesterday morning the Fire Department had a rnn to Dillon street, caused by a small blaze in a roof. The coal office of Hunt & Pray was entered by thieves night before last, but they secured nothing of great value.

Hon. Thomas N. Smith, the newly elected Superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphan's Home and Asylum for Feeble Minded Children at Knightstown, will enter upon the discharge of his duties on Friday.

Joshua T. Rosenberry was asked by Judge Norton yesterday what he would do about making good the losses occasioned the State by his forgeries, and when he hesitatingly said he did not know what he could do, he was notified that sentence will be pronounced on him Saturday.

Frank Carver, a crazy man, who escaped from the Insane Hospital quite recently, was captured yesterday. C. J. Truemper, of 143 Virginia avenue, says that his loss by fire Tuesday morning was $3,000, instead of $25, as reported. John Williams, who is accused of having attempted to pick an old lady's pocket in the Union Depot, was arrested last night by the

The gas company has placed a large lamp on a twenty-five foot post between the tracks of the Pan-Handle and the Union Railway Companies at the Virginia avenue crossing. The lamp has six jets.

There will be a grand calico ball at Professor Gresh's Dancing Academy this evening. Invitations have been issued to a number of prominent citizens, and the occasion promises to be an enjoyable one.

Mis. Pittman, the female member of the Board of Trustees for the Soldiers' Orphan's Home, requests that all persons having children's literature, for which they have no use, will send the same to her care at the

Mr. Dunn, proprietor of the Globe House, received a severe cut yesterday evening in the effort to draw a cork from a bottle, which burst in his hand, and a physician had to be called before the hemorrhage could be

The Meridian Rink is doing a flourishing business. The ventilators and windows are so arranged that a current of fresh, cooling air is continually circulating through the imported direct, we can not dupliskating room, which is exhilarating to the skaters and tends to make them as comfortable as they can reasonably wish to be. The appointments are good, the price of admission low-only ten cents. In fact, a look at the smiling face which greets you at the bex-office window is well worth the small sum asked for a ticket. It is Harry Jackson's face we refer to, and not Chalmers

Artillery May Party.

The Light Artillery May party will be given the night of May 1, at their armory. The entertainment will be of a musical nature, and close with a drill by the team that will endeavor to win fame and glory for themselves and their city at the Mobile contest. A drill by the team last night was witnessed by all the officers and was remarkably perfect. To those who have seen a drill with cannon, the May party will be an opportunity to judge what may be expected at the | Swiss Watches, THE EST IN contest, and for those who have not seen such a drill this will afford a rare treat.

Heirs Ought to be Plenty. The State Treasurer yesterday received the following letter:

Pougherers E. N. Y. April 8, 1885.

Dear Sir-Notice of the death of a man by the name of James Whaley has been published in newspapers here. He is supposed to have died leaving a large amount of property; nearly $1,000,000, leaving his heirs in this country, but none at the place of his death. I would be pleased to receive any information you may have in regard to this matter. The heirs here have applied to me to accertain what I can about it.

Yours truly,

Surrogate of Duchess County, N. Y.

Seriously Injured.

Joseph Ryan, an employe of the Barry Eaw Works, met with an accident at that establishment yesterday. He was engaged in grinding a punch, when, by some mischance. the rapidly revolving stone knocked the instrument from his hand and it was thrown with great violence in his face, mashing his nose and felling him to the floor. He was unconscious for sometime after the acci-

A Tramp Killed.

Andrew Knuyzs, a tramp, was killed early yesterday moring by an engine on the Belt Road. He was dressed for cold weather, baving on three suits of clothes even to as many shirts. In his pecket was a certificate in Latin, showing that he had been baptized into the Catholic Church. From other papers on his person it was evident that he was a native of Poland.

Sudden Death,

Edward Ditman, a colored man, died suddenly, at the Washington House, last evening at 8 o'clock of an internal hemorrhage. He has been in the employ of the American Express Company for fourteen years, and has for nearly a year been sinking with con-sumption. Flanner & Hommown were summoned and took charge of the remains.
